WPSBA Welcomes 5 New Members to the Board of Directors

(Harrison, NY, July 19, 2021) The Westchester Putnam School Boards Association (WPSBA) is pleased to welcome five new members of our Board of Directors. As voted on at the 59th Annual Meeting on May 24, 2021, four new Directors began a three-year term on July 1st. Branwen MacDonald has served on the board of Peekskill City SD since 2017. She contributes a passion for advocacy and shining a spotlight on inequitable funding. Kelly Mulvoy Mangan has served on the Harrison CSD Board of Education since 2014. Kelly has a legal background and a commitment to ensuring that all students are educated. Emily Rubin Persons, a BOE member in Pleasantville since 2012, is a vocal advocate for students, with specific concerns about unfunded mandates in public education. Emily brings a strong commitment to tradition and stability to the WSPBA board. Scott Seaman has served on the board of Brewster CSD since 2019. Scott has a strong belief in being part of continued progress for the schools and is focused on student mental health.

On July 2, 2021, WPSBA's Board of Directors passed a resolution approving Adina Berrios Brooks to fill a vacancy on the Board of Directors. Adina's term is for an interim year ending June 30, 2022. Adina has served on the board of the New Rochelle City SD since 2020. She brings a focus on excellence and equity and a collaborative spirit to WPSBA.

Westchester Putnam School Boards Association is a regional, not-for-profit organization that serves school districts by supporting school board members through programs on current education issues, public policy and board governance, as well as public education advocacy, data resources, and networking opportunities. The WPSBA Board of Directors is made up of a maximum of 16 area Board of Education Trustees.
