

Timeline—2020 Annual Budget Vote & School Board Election

- February 15 Commissioner of Taxation and Finance shall calculate the tax base growth factor for school districts and notify those with a positive quantity change factor so they can include such information in their calculation of the tax levy limit for the coming school year.

- March 31-
April 4 Districts must publish first of four legal notices of budget vote and board election, (i.e. 4 times during the 7 weeks (49 days) preceding the date of the election, the first notice being published not later than 45 days before the election). (The 45th day before the election falls on Saturday, April 4th. If newspaper(s) of general circulation will publish the first legal notice on Sat. April 4th this complies with the deadline. However, better practice probably would be to publish on or before Friday April 3, 2020, but not before Tues. March 31st -- the 49th day before the election). Publication on Monday, April 6, 2020 probably also is permissible pursuant to Gen. Constr. Law §25-a<sup>1</sup>).

1. School board candidate nominating petitions due in the office of the district clerk by 5:00 p.m. 30 days before election.   2. Voter submitted petitions (for propositions other than those required to be included in the notice of annual meeting) must be submitted 30 days before the vote. (30th day before election falls on Sunday, April 19th; therefore Gen. Constr. Law controls and petitions are due on Monday, April 20th).
- April 27 -- Districts must transmit “property tax report card” to SED by the end of the next business day following its approval by the school board, but not later than the 24th day before the budget vote. (The 24th day before the budget vote falls on Saturday, April 25th. Therefore, best practice would be to transmit the real property tax report card to SED by Friday, April 24, 2020. However, if a particular school board does not meet until April 24, 2020 to approve the property tax report card, then pursuant to the General Construction Law, the report card could be transmitted on Monday, April 27, 2020).

<sup>1</sup> Pursuant to New York State General Construction Law section 25-a(1), when a legal deadline falls “on a Saturday, Sunday or a public holiday, such act may be done on the next succeeding business day and if the period ends at a specified hour, such act may be done at or before the same hour of such next succeeding business day.”

<sup>2</sup> By necessity the board of education must approve the budget prior to adopting the property tax report card. However, the board retain the ability to make adjustments to budgetary expenditures as long as it does not change the overall budget amount.

Timeline—2020 Budget Re-Vote

June 9-15* -- Last possible day for voter registration by a school district's board of registration (7-2 days before re-vote).

June 10 -- Deadline for mailing "budget notice" (6 days before re-vote).

June 16 -- UNIFORM BUDGET RE-VOTE DATE

No district is compelled to hold a budget re-vote, but if it does, it must be held on the third Tuesday in June, unless the Commissioner of Education, at the request of the school district, certifies no later than March 1st that such vote would conflict with religious observances, in which case the revote must be held (if at all) on the second Tuesday in June.

*The law provides that the board of registration shall meet not more than seven days or less than two days preceding the election. Because the election is conducted on a Tuesday the last possible day for registration falls on a Sunday. School boards should consult with their school attorney as to whether the period of registration should be extended to the Monday immediately preceding the Tuesday vote pursuant to General Construction Law section 25-a.

Note: Education Law §2022(7) requires a school district to post on its website the final annual budget and any multi-year financial plan adopted by the board of education.
